

Circular no.: 029/2015/T&S/CuR/138

September 24, 2015

Discontinuation of Trading Operations in Currency Derivatives Market Segment

In terms of the provisions of the Rules of the Exchange, Members of the Exchange were informed vide circular no. 022/2015/T&S/CuR/137 dated May 6, 2015 that the launch of new contracts in Currency Derivatives Market Segment would be deferred until further notice.

Members are informed that Financial Technologies (India) Limited, the sole shareholder (through a subsidiary) of Bourse Africa Limited was directed by the Financial Services Commission (FSC), Mauritius to divest its stake from Bourse Africa Limited. The process of divestment by FTIL is still in progress based on the Share Purchase Agreement (SPA) which was signed in November 2014.

The Exchange in the meanwhile has decided that trading operations will cease with effect from September 29, 2015 pending the completion of the divestment process.

Members shall be kept informed by the Exchange on the above matter.

For and on behalf of

Bourse Africa Limited

Stanley Verghese

Senior Vice President
